An Unhappy Editor.

The Chicago Times is unhappy over the result of the election in Missouri; is afflicted with a breaking out at the mouth, and an overflow of foul words. It says that the TRIBUNE claims ROLLINS to be a "Black Republican." No sir, but you did; and so did your confederate, the St. Louis Republican. The name is quoted in our columns. Look and see. We simply repeated your language when you stated that he ran as the candidate of the "Black Republicans." The next day, however, the Times discovers that he is a "Pro-Slavery Know Nothing." Can the Times reconcile such whiffling inconsistency? The defeat of its Border Ruffian friends in Missouri has exasperated it beyond belief. Its sympathies are on the side of the Amalgamationists and Ruffians much stronger than even we supposed. Hence, allowance must be made for its manifestations of grief and chagrin.

THE AUGUST ELECTIONS.

Iowa.

If we may credit a dispatch from Dubuque, received at a late hour Saturday evening, the new Constitution has been carried by a decisive vote. Twenty-six counties had been heard from, giving a majority of 3267 in its favor. The remaining counties, it was thought, would generally give majorities for the Constitution. This must be taken as guess work, but we have now no doubt that the Republicans of Iowa have achieved a conspicuous victory. Our returns by counties foot up as follows:

For New Constitution. Counties.	Majorities.	Against New Constitution. Counties.	Majorities.
Lee	1,200	Dubuque	1,300
Scott	720	Clayton	700
Henry	517	Johnson	400
Mahaska	170	Wapello	330
Cedar	200	Marion	560
Des Moines	300	Iowa	35
Washington	200	Benton	150
Jefferson	50	Monroe	150
Jasper	200	Van Buren	100
Keokuk	200
Buchanan	300
Muscatine	400
Linn	400
Jasper	400
Total	5,309		3,765

Majority for New Constitution.........1,544

These returns are doubtless imperfect, but, we think, a fair approximation to the result in the counties named. Supposing these figures to be correct, they exhibit a reduction from the FREMONT majority of last Fall, of 1902 in the above 21 counties, without however reckoning the FILLMORE vote. Our returns as to county officers are meagre and unimportant. If the new Constitution is carried, as we have now no doubt it is, the Republicans can afford the Amalgamationists a few straggling Coroners and Judges of Probate.

Missouri.

The returns continue to come favorably to ROLLINS, whom the Chicago Times and St. Louis Republican call the "Black Republican" candidate.

On Thursday forty counties had been heard from, which indicated a gain of 4,596 for ROLLINS on the vote between FILLMORE and BUCHANAN, when the latter carried the State by 9,460.

On Friday fifteen more counties were heard from, which add 2,570 to his gains, and leave only 2,474 more votes to be gained to secure the election of ROLLINS, while there are yet 52 counties to hear from.

The St. Louis Intelligencer of Saturday morning says:

The result, in fifty-five counties, would seem to stand thus:

Gains previously made	4,596
Total gain on Buchanan's majority,	7,166

If these returns may be relied on, there can hardly be a reasonable doubt of the election of Maj. ROLLINS.

The Democrat of the same date confirms the above, and the Republican does not deny it.—BUCHANAN'S majority over FILLMORE in the whole State was 9,640. Three-fourths of that majority has been overcome in half the counties. If the others show half as large gains, ROLLINS is Governor.

Kentucky.

The Democratic candidate for State Treasurer has over 10,000 majority. The following is the result on members of Congress:

Dist.	Dems.	K. N's.
1	H. C. Burnett.
2	Peyton.
3		W. S. Underwood.
4	A. G. Talbott.
5	Jos'h H. Jewett.
6	John M. Elliott.
7		Humphrey Marshall.
8	James B. Clay.
9	Mason.
10	J. W. Stevenson.

The Legislature is largely Democratic and insures the election of a Democrat to the U. S. Senate, in place of Hon. JOHN B. THOMPSON (Whig and K. N.) whose term expires March 4, 1859.

Tennessee.

Returns are incomplete, but indicate the election of seven or eight Democrats to Congress and two or three Americans—ZOLLICOFFER, READY and ETHERIDGE, doubtful. Legislature Democratic in both branches. HARRIS' majority for Governor will exceed 10,000. The complexion of the Legislature insures the election of a Democrat to the United States Senate. The late incumbent, Hon. JAMES C. JONES, was elected as a very poor kind of a Whig. Since the introduction of the Nebraska swindle he has acted with the Democrats. His term has already expired.

Alabama.

The Democrats have made a clean sweep, as everybody expected, electing State Officers, Members of Congress and Legislature. The only contest of any importance was between JOHN A. WINSTON, late Governor, and CLEMENT C. CLAY, present Senator, for the vacancy in Mr. CLAY'S seat in 1859. It is not yet known which has been successful, and, in point of fact, makes very little difference.

Texas.

Gen. HOUSTON is beaten for Governor by an enormous majority. RUNNELS, the Democratic candidate, has about 12,000 majority as far as heard from. This may be a telegraphic error for 1200, but we fear it is correct. The Legislature is all Sham-Democratic, and secures the election of two Democrats to the U. S. Senate—one in the place of Gen. HOUSTON, whose term expires in 1859, and one in place of Hon. THOS. J. RUSK, who lately committed suicide. Gen. RUSK had just entered upon a new term which expires in 1863.

North Carolina.

The Democrats have carried everything as far as heard from. Eight members of Congress were to be elected, but no Legislature.

Kansas.

Returns from Lawrence show an almost unanimous vote for the Topeka Constitution—652 to 2. The State ticket received a similar vote.

"A TRUE DEMOCRAT."—We have received two communications from an anonymous correspondent, dated Springfield, Ill. Will the author give us his name?

THE CUNNINGHAM CASE.

Her Counsel's Advice.

Character of her Sister.

[From the New York Papers of Friday last.]

Professor Barker and Dr. Dewees, arrived at No. 31 Bond street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. They immediately announced themselves and the object of their visit, and were shown up to Mrs. Cunningham, whom they found in bed in the front room on the second floor, and apparently in great suffering.

During a conversation, which lasted some quarter of an hour, Mrs. Cunningham said: "I am quite willing to undergo the examination, Dr. Dewees, but my counsel will not give his consent."

The following letter has been forwarded to Capt. Dilks for delivery to its respective address.

LETTER FROM MR. STAFFORD TO JUDGE DAVIDSON.

New York, Wednesday, Aug. 5, 1857.

DEAR SIR: As Counsel of Mrs. Emma A. Burdell, I am obliged to decline permitting or consenting to her submission to any physical examination under the charge preferred against her, and have accordingly, in accordance with the advice of her attending physician, advised her to refuse so to do.

Yours, &c., WILLIAM R. STAFFORD.

Judge Davidson.

In a conversation with Mrs. Fry, the matron of Bellevue Hospital, she informs us that, five or six weeks since, a gentleman applied to her for a new-born, unwashed child, stating that he desired it for a widow, and that the child would become heir to a large estate. The gentleman after further conversation with Mrs. Fry, and having pledged her to strict secrecy, disclosed the fact that the widow in question was Mrs. Cunningham; that he was a friend of hers, and thought she had been badly used. The matron says she at once informed him that she was well acquainted with Dr. Burdell in his lifetime, and that at the period of his death, he was engaged in preparing for her a set of teeth, and, moreover, that he was indebted to her in the sum of $60. And still further, the said gentleman tendered her a large sum, (how much, she declined to say, but we have otherwise heard it was $300,) if she would furnish him the infant privately, as was desired. This, she says she refused to do, and the gentleman then inquired the name of the nurse, in charge of the lying-in-ward, Mrs. Avis, and made a memorandum of it. It now seems more than ever probable that the letter received by the nurse a few days afterwards was penned by parties in the Cunningham interest.

WHAT MR. STAFFORD SAYS.

Wm. R. Stafford, Esq., has been associated with Mr. Clinton and Judge Dean as counsel for Mrs. Cunningham. He was the last of the trio engaged, and promises to be the last to desert his client. He still has faith in Mrs. Cunningham, and means to fight her battle with all the energy and skill he is master of. Mrs. Cunningham had frequently spoken to him about her pregnancy, but never mentioned the precise time when she expected to be confined. She told him a few days ago that she was going to engage an old nurse of hers to attend upon the expected heir, and wait upon her through her sickness. He did not think that the birth would take place as soon as it did. That there was a birth he has no doubt, he takes the statement of Mrs. Cunningham as sufficient on this point.

MRS. CUNNINGHAM'S SISTER A THIEF.

Though Mrs. Barnes has not been named until now in connection with the Burdell mystery, we find no difficulty in tracing her history. She has been twice married, her first husband dying suddenly, leaving four children to her care. Her second husband, Mr. Barnes, resided with her at Newark, N. J., and also died suddenly, leaving his three promising children to her, who are still alive. In the summer of 1850 the widow Barnes occupied a small house on "old Gowanus Lane," now a part of Fifth avenue, Brooklyn. She was a member of, and a Sunday school teacher in, the Dean street Methodist Church, of which Rev. S. H. Clark was pastor. Being poor, she was assisted in the support of her family by the church. In the summer of that year one of the members of the church, a Mr. W., who then resided in Oxford street, and who resides in Brooklyn at the present time, but does business in Broadway, in this city, prepared to go into the country with his family. Wishing some one to take charge of his house during his absence, and thinking to do a kindness to a sister in the church, he applied to Mrs. Barnes, who gladly accepted the offer to make his house her home until the family returned. They were absent about three weeks, and when they returned, found that the house had been robbed of almost all the valuable portable articles in it. Wine, silver, china and glass-ware, table-spreads, napkins, sheets, pillow cases, bed-spreads, even the beds themselves, had some of them been ripped open and a portion of the feathers taken out and carried off. Mrs. Barnes was in the house when they arrived, and welcomed Mrs. W. as if nothing unusual had happened. She soon left for home, and it was not till after her departure that the robbery was discovered.

When the fact was announced to Mrs. Barnes, she showed the greatest astonishment, and protested that it must have been done by the servant girl.

Complaint was made at the City Hall of the robbery, and an officer named Egan, accompanied by Mr. W., and the pastor of the Dean street Church, proceeded to search the residence of Mrs. Barnes. They were at first refused admittance, but finally succeeded in entering the house, Mrs. Barnes having, in the meantime, escaped by the back door.

Many of the missing articles were found and identified, and the remainder they were afterwards told were taken to a place designated in New York.

Mrs. Barnes was arrested by officer Egan and put into the lock-up, but was soon let out on the responsibility of the officer who arrested her. She was expelled from the Dean street Church, and Mr. W. took no further steps in prosecution of the matter. Mrs. Barnes is a woman of small stature, about 40 years of age, has light eyes and hair, the latter inclined to gray. She lately walks very lame.

CITY ITEMS.

THE BOGUS BRAT.—A photograph of the bogus Burdell brat may be looked for in Harper's Journal of Civilization for next week.

NEWSBOY'S FIGHT.—James McBride, a newsboy, was fined $1 in the Police Court, on Saturday, for fighting with another newsboy named "Yorker."

ANNOYING PASSENGERS.—Owen McClosky, a runner for the Jeffry House, was fined $10 in the Police Court on Saturday, for annoying passengers.

A BRUTE.—A brute of a fellow, named Bryan Thornton, was fined $15 in the Police Court on Saturday, for kicking a little child which was playing on the sidewalk.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—Officer Kaufman, heretofore attached to the Captain's staff, has been appointed Second Lieutenant for the North Division, a better appointment could hardly have been made.

CRICKET.—Since hearing of a game of Cricket that was played in Union Park on Monday last, I with many others am anxious to hear the result of the game. Who is to blame for not giving it publicity? Will the Secretary answer? I am a lover of Cricket, and in favor of giving publicity to the same. ZED.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Messrs. C. P. Bradley & Co., detective police officers, have shown us some counterfeit twenties on the Farmers and Drovers Bank of Waynesburg, (Pa.) which are so nearly like the genuine bills as to require an expert to detect them. These men were recently arrested in Louisville, Kentucky, for passing the same kind of bills. The public should be on their guard.

THE ABORTION CASE—THE PARTIES HELD TO BAIL IN $10,000 EACH.—On Saturday, Mr. James W. Temple and Dr. James Swanze were taken before Judge R. S. Wilson, of the Recorder's Court, on a writ of habeas corpus, and after hearing argument and testimony in the case, the Judge decided to admit them to bail in the sum of $10,000 each, to answer the charge of manslaughter.

BODY RECOGNIZED.—The body found a day or two since floating in the Lake, near Gross Point, has been recognized as that of W. D. Bosworth, mate of the propeller Iowa, who was lost overboard a few weeks since. Upon one of deceased arms the letters "W. D. B." and a figure of a dancing girl were marked in India Ink, by which the body was identified. Bosworth resided in Milwaukee, was married and has two children.

AN ALLEGED BURGLAR.—On last Friday forenoon a man named Samuel Woodward was found in the act of leaving Mr. Wm. Brennen's House in Bridgeport, by climbing through a window. Woodward was discovered by a neighbor woman, who gave the alarm, and he was pursued into a patch of hazel bushes and caught. A watch and a black silk mantilla were found near the bushes, and it is alleged the accused threw them away in his flight, and that he had stolen them from Brennen's house. Woodward tried to prove that he was suffering from mania a potu when these occurrences took place, and did not therefore know what he was about, but Justice King committed him for trial.

CRICKET.—The great match between the Chicago and Cleveland Clubs, will be played at Cleveland on Friday and Saturday, August 14th and 15th.

The Cleveland Club is the oldest in the West, and has hitherto been victorious in every match; it now remains to be seen whether our young Chicago Club—that has also not yet seen defeat—cannot bear off those laurels so proudly worn by the elder club. As considerable interest is felt in this contest, it is proper to announce that the Chicago party will leave on Thursday morning. The cricketers of this vicinity and Milwaukee are respectfully invited to accompany their brethren on the trip. A final meeting of friends will be held at the Club House, 51 North Canal street, on Monday evening.

CHICAGOAN ROBBED IN BOSTON.—The Boston Traveller says that a "Mr. William Stevenson, who belongs to Chicago, now in this city on business, called at the first station on Tuesday, and stated that he had been robbed at a house in North street, of $240 in gold. He left soon after to search for his money, but returned and stated that he had been a second time robbed, having been induced to enter another house, where a woman seized and make off with his gold watch and chain, valued at $140. For this second robbery a woman named Ellen Mahoney was arrested and committed for trial, but none of the missing property has been recovered. Mr. Stevenson was also committed as a witness in default of bail in $100."

LETTING OF THE NEW ILLINOIS PENITENTIARY.—The Commissioners for building the new Penitentiary at Joliet, succeeded, on Wednesday of last week, in letting the east wing and the building intended for the kitchen, dining room and chapel. E. P. Sangamond & S. K. Casey are the contractors for the sum of $229,000, being $104,000 for the east wing, and $125,000 for the kitchen. They pay the State ten cents per yard for stone taken from the quarries on the ground.

W. McMurtry, C. L. Higby, and E. Eliot advertise for bids, for the purchase of the Penitentiary and grounds at Alton which will be vacated as soon as room can be made with convicts in the new building now going up at Joliet.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—Mr. I. H. Brown, from Troy, N. Y., was, on Saturday morning, robbed of land warrants to the amount of seventeen hundred acres. Mr. Brown stopped in the Sherman House, and left the land warrants in his room in a small valise, and about 8 o'clock in the morning, while Mr. Brown was at breakfast, some one entered the room and carried off the valise and the warrants. No trace of the thief or property has been found. This is the boldest and most extensive robbery ever committed in our city.

BURGLARY IN ONTARIO STREET.—Michael Conoroy was arrested on Friday night, upon a charge of burglariously entering the dwelling of John Wiltsie, on Ontario Street, near Market. Mrs. Wiltsie found accused leaving the house by a window, whereupon she seized him and called for help. Her cries were not heard at the house and her prisoner escaped but was afterwards arrested by the police. The accused was committed for further examination. The affair occurred about half-past nine o'clock in the evening.

Conoroy is a carpenter by trade, but has lately led an idle life and drank to excess. It is supposed he was drunk when he went into the house, as he carried nothing away with him.

COOK CO. AGRICULTURAL AND HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—An adjourned meeting was held at the office of the Prairie Farmer, No. 47 Clark street, Dr. F. T. Miner, West Wheeling, in the chair. The following resolution was offered:

Resolved, That we deem it expedient and proper that Cook County should sustain an Agricultural and Horticultural Society, and that we, here present, take the necessary steps to secure such an organization as soon as practicable.

This being taken as the sense of the meeting, a committee consisting of Dr. Jas. V. Z. Blaney, Evanston, Chairman, Dr. John A. Kennicott, West Northfield, and Frank W. Reilly, Chicago, was appointed to draft a Constitution and By-Laws.

The committee was desired to report at the next meeting. Remarks were made by Messrs. F. H. Benson, F. T. Miner, M. D. Edgar Sanders, Hurd, Brooks and others, after which it was moved to adjourn until next Friday afternoon, August 14th at 2 o'clock.

FRANK W. REILLY, Sec'y.

CORRESPONDENCE.—The following correspondence explains itself:

CHICAGO, August 6, 1857.

Silas McBride, Chief Engineer Fire Department; You will please accept the enclosed check on R. K. Swift, Bro. & Co., for fifty dollars toward the Firemen's Benevolent Fund, as a small mark of my appreciation for the services rendered by the Fire Department, at the disastrous fire in my buildings on Clark street, on the 5th inst. JAS. LARMON.

CHICAGO, August 7, 1857.

Mr. James Larmon, Sir: Yours of the 6th is received, enclosing a check on R. K. Swift, Bro. & Johnston, for $50, to be given to the Firemen's Benevolent Fund, as a testimonial of your appreciation of the services of the Fire Department of this city, at the extensive fire in your buildings on Clark street, on the afternoon of the 5th inst. In behalf of the Firemen, I tender you their thanks for the unexpected donation, regretting that it was out of our power to prevent the entire destruction of your building, as the fire could doubtless have been stopped in a very short time if the water had not been shut off. Yours, &c., SILAS McBRIDE, C. E.

CANAL TOLLS.—The canal is doing better this year than last. The tolls received up to July 1856 and 1857, at the office in this city are as follows:

	1856.	1857.
April	$6,769.29	$3,290.04
May	14,483.00	17,905.12
June	13,775.77	25,076.05
July	6,513.93	19,156.63
	$41,540.99	$67,052.69
Increase of '57		$25,531.70

The canal opened on the 7th of April in 1856, and only on the 13th of April in 1857.

The amount of tolls received at the Canal office in this city, since its opening, have been as follows:

1848	$46,322.30
1849	63,512.77
1850	87,672.73
1851	112,894.21
1852	106,395.35
1853	104,710.54
1854	94,726.93
1855	95,000.94
1856	76,134.91

The shipments of lumber have been immense this season, and the increase in the tolls on that article has been fully equal to 25 per cent. This will, in a measure, account for the increase in the receipts of tolls for 1857.

BLOCKING UP STREETS.—No builder is allowed to occupy more than one-third of the width of any street in front of the structure he may be erecting. Such is the ordinance. Why does not the Mayor enforce it strictly? It is giving builders a great favor to permit them to fill up any portion of the street with their materials. In England and France we are told that builders are obliged to pile their stuff within the walls of the edifice they are erecting.

But go through the principal streets of Chicago and see how the ordinance is violated. Take for instance Dearborn opposite the Revere House, and instead of one-third of the street being occupied, you will find three-fourths of it covered with brick, mortar, lumber, iron stone and debris. One whole side-walk is wrested from pedestrians, and scarcely room enough left on the street for a wagon to crowd past between the curb stone and building materials. Lake Street near Wabash is obstructed in the same way. So is South Water, and in fact wherever a large block is being built, the ordinance will be found to be wantonly violated.

These obstructions remain not for a day or a week, or even a month, but during the whole building season. The great travelling public have some rights as well as contractors, and should not be unnecessarily impeded or excluded in the use of the streets. The Mayor has made a great flourish of trumpets about the binding character of his oath, and the solemn obligation resting upon him to remove store boxes, barber poles, sign boards, grind stones, chairs, vinegar kegs and like traps found on the sidewalks after 10 P. M., when they could not possibly obstruct anybody save burglars and drunkards, straggling about at that hour of the night. He pitches into P. W. Gates and other West Side manufacturers, for placing some hardware over the gutters, between the sidewalk and the roadway of some streets but little traveled, and creates an uproar about the removal of those articles which obstruct no living soul. But not a finger is raised to clear the great thoroughfares, which are barricaded with piles of building materials during the whole summer. Why don't he order this stuff to be kept within the space authorized by the ordinance.—Why prosecute petty offenders, and wink at aggravated cases of obstruction? EQUAL JUSTICE.

MADISON STREET BRIDGE.—Editors of Tribune: Are we ever to have a Madison Street Bridge? The extraordinary delay of this work seems wholly unpardonable. The patience of the public has been taxed almost beyond the limits of Christian endurance. The business men, also, in the neighborhood of this protracted enterprise, have lost thousands of dollars, and are daily suffering by the long continued blockade of this great thoroughfare. The traveling public justly complain, as they suffer great inconvenience and loss of time in not being able to cross the river at this point.

Now, at whose door lies the fault? Who is it that is thus temporizing and dallying at the expense of so much public and private interest? Is it the City Superintendent? If so, he deserves the severest censure and should be made to feel the just indignation of the public for such a gross neglect of his duty. Has a certain committee of the Common Council been "extending time" when they had no right to do so, thus aiding in the procrastination of this work? There is a wanton disregard of public and private interests or a culpable inefficiency resting somewhere, and the public should know where it lies, that they may visit the guilty parties with that censure which such a dereliction of duty so justly merits.

It is a good Republican principle that the public servants should be held accountable for their acts to their constituents, and it is time that some accountability was rendered to the public for the act of shutting up the great thoroughfare of Madison street for such an unpardonable length of time.

It does not seem a justifiable excuse, as was suggested in the TRIBUNE not long since, that the property holders along the line of this work had not paid up the assessments against them for the partial filling up done last fall; for the collection of those assessments, had they been just and proper, could have been enforced by law. But they were not just and proper—they were unequal and unjust. The lot immediately next the bridge, belonging to some minor heirs, was put down in that assessment as having 123 front feet, when it was in contemplation by the city to cut it down in widening the river, to 105 feet, and it has since been so cut down. Had they paid that assessment they would have paid for the filling up of some 18 front feet more than could justly have been charged to them. Besides the extreme high grade of the street near the bridge in front of their lot depreciates it, in the estimation of competent business men, about one-fourth of its whole value, it having no outlet except into this high graded street in front, and its dock and grounds of course must be kept down to a convenient proximity to the river for docking and shipping purposes.

Valuable and substantial buildings had been erected on the established grade which the present grade throws quite into the shade and damages very materially. It seemed an unjust demand to ask these persons to pay for labor which so materially injured their property,—and it was on the ground of this injustice in the demand, and by the advice of counsel, that payment of these assessments was refused, and not from a desire to shirk any responsibility by a fair and equitable taxation for city improvements. ASTHMA.—Jonas Whitcomb's remedy prepared from a German recipe, obtained by the late Jonas Whitcomb, in Europe. It is well known to have alleviated this disorder in his case, when all other appliances of medical skill had been abandoned by him in despair. In no case of purely Asthmatic character, has it failed to give immediate relief, and it has effected many permanent cures.

Prepared only by Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston. For sale by J. H. Reed & Co.; Fahnestock & Davis, Penton, Fisher & Co., Breck & Haine, Penton & Robinson, and Gale & Bro., Chicago; and by Druggists generally, at 50 and $1 per bottle. ap7-1wd&w-7

COMMERCIAL.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, Saturday Evening, August 8, 1857.

Receipts of Produce from all sources continue to be moderate. In Flour there is some firmness. Wheat is yet very scarce, not enough Spring coming forward to supply the mills, and prices are advanced. Corn remains firm at the advance, but with few sales, owing somewhat to the wavering condition of the Eastern market. Oats have also become in better demand at quite an advance, the supply not being equal to the wants of the large local trade. It is trusted that large receipts of new Oats will be had by rail in a week or so, as the crop is understood to be great, and prices should go down. Rye, of the new crop, is coming forward to a small extent. The price, however, is not settled, few distillers being yet in the market to buy it; 85c is the nominal rate. For Timothy there is getting to be some inquiry, with no receipts likely to be had for a fortnight to three weeks, and large eastern orders are here and have been forwarding. Failures, Assignments, &c.

The following are the list of failures, assignments, &c., for the week ending Aug. 5th, as reported in the New York Independent: [illegible]

WHEAT FAILURE.—We learn with regret, that in Ontario and Livingston counties—formerly the richest region of the entire Genesee country, the crop for this year is a total failure. A small exception may be granted in favor of the Mediterranean variety, but there is hardly enough of that to make the exception important; and that the loss is total.

MICHIGAN WHEAT.—The wheat in this latitude is now mostly secured, and the result is fully equal to the most sanguine expectations. The quality of the berry was never better. It is not yet fit for milling.—[Detroit Trib., 7th.

CANAL TOLLS.—The tolls of the New York Canals thus far show a falling off this year in comparison with the tolls of last year, for the same period, of $140,174; and in comparison with the tolls of 1847, amounting to $934,189.

The receipts of principal articles of produce at Montreal since the opening of navigation to August 1st, for two seasons, were as follows:

	1857.	1856.
Flour, bbls	357,530	355,940
Pork	9,674	24,599
Wheat, bu	974,232	560,472
Corn	171,963	281,276

The exports by sea, during the same periods, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	112,373	101,600
Pork	700	1,011
Wheat, bu	344,209	298,967
Corn	18,620	88,829

BANK FAILURE.—The American Bank, of Trenton, N. J., is reported to have failed.

New York Dry Goods Market.

There is a fair amount of business doing, but the fall trade has not properly commenced. The importations also not very large, having been checked by the continuance of high prices abroad, which seem likely to continue during the current year. The number of country buyers in the city is not yet large, but another week is expected to witness a considerable arrival. The jobbers of the city have been the principal buyers hitherto; but themselves having hardly commenced selling any but staple goods. Desirable styles of silks and other fancy goods are not yet superabundant in stock, and command firm prices. [illegible]

Our reliable commercial correspondent in France writes us by last steamer as follows, dated Lyons, July 18th: "We take the opportunity to apprise you that the result of the European silk crop is now completely known. The general result is better than last year, and the new silk appears to be of good quality. The crop in Piedmont and a Italy having nearly failed, and corrosive being in France a crop from cheaper; large contracts have been made here for those countries, which will maintain prices high in our market for some time. The present prices of raw silk are about 10 percent. higher than two or three months ago.

Manufactured goods are getting scarcer every day in our market, the English, German, Russian and Parisian buyers having bought every article they could find at old prices. Our manufacturers having exhausted their old stock, are now obliged to ask the full advance for new orders. The consequence will be that prices will remain high until the end of the year at least."—[N. Y. Ind., 6th.

Sale of Valuable Timbered Land.

HAVING BEEN FAVORED WITH INSTRUCTIONS to sell the twenty-seven acres of heavily timbered Land formerly known as the "Patrick Property," situated within ten minutes' ride of the city by rail-road, and twenty-four minutes by plank road, being located only a half minutes' walk from the railroad depot—which station is also the junction of the following: C. & R. I., C. Alton & St. Louis, M. C. & N. I., Cin. Peru & Chi., Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chi., Chi. Peoria & Oquawka Railroad Corporations,—rendering it by far (of any property heretofore offered for a suburban residence) the most worthy of attention, whether from its accessibility to town, or healthfulness of situation.

To enumerate the many advantages that this property possesses over that located even at the limits of the city, were probably useless to far-seeing men; suffice it to say, whether for the merchant desirous of securing a pleasant homestead for his family away from the heat and bustle of city life, or whether as a source of speculation, this land presents sure advantages over other property in opposite directions with theoretical dreams of speedy advancement in value.

Without holding out to purchasers the oft-repeated inducements of special trains for their accommodation, it is perhaps necessary only to say that there is now running daily nine passenger trains over the above road, forming a close connection with town at almost any hour of the day, and affording parties desirous of attending lectures, concerts or the theatre in the evening, an opportunity of returning on one of the night express trains, at a cheaper rate and speedier transit than if residing within the city limits; and at the same time it should be borne in mind, that this is the only point accessible to town and return by railroad on Sundays.

There is now in contemplation the erection of several substantial and elegant residences for some of our most wealthy citizens, and it is confidently asserted by people who should be posted, that one many years elapse a village itself must spring up in this neighborhood, by the establishment of machine shops of the several connecting roads thereto.

As this is the only really desirable timber residence property for sale in the neighborhood, and by far the most beautiful, if not sold in one body, it will be within two weeks offered in lots to suit purchasers, on terms that cannot fail to prove it also the most advantageous property.

For particulars of terms and a plat of the property, application should be made to G. M. GRAY, Dearborn street, or to the undersigned. JOHN RANKIN. au10-2w No. 161 Randolph st.

The following, from the pen of ex-Senator Bannigan of Indiana, will be appreciated by all:

"We cannot refrain from calling the attention of our readers to the HAIR RESTORATIVE of Prof. O. J. Wood. It will be seen that he has numerous certificates from persons of the highest character, to the merits of his Restorative. From positive knowledge, we are also enabled to say that it is in every respect what it professes to be, and we do not hesitate to pronounce it the finest preparation for the head and hair which has, so far, been devised by human ingenuity. We have seen it arrest threatened baldness, and restore to the head its original profusion of natural and glossy hair; and when the latter has been prematurely tinged with gray, we have seen it, like magic, restore the colors of youth and health. The distinguishing property of this, we might truly say, miraculous Restorative, is, that it gives to the person who uses it the same head of hair they wore in youth, thus acting in strict compliance with the first and greatest of all toilet-makers—Nature. No one who has used it will hesitate to unite with us in this testimony to its peculiar merit."—[Covington (Ind.) People's Friend.

Harrison's Prize Kitchener.

THE UNEQUALLED SATISFACTION afforded by this Cooking Range wherever it has been tried, has induced the inventor to personally introduce its merits more extensively in the United States. Having since the London Exhibition of 1851 imported some hundreds, and also having fixed them all over England, Ireland, Scotland, and many places on the Continent, I am enabled to produce references from all parts, of the highest standard; and, during the past six months residence in this country, I can give those wishing an efficient, durable, economical Cooking Range, first-class references from parties here having them in use.

Price—For families, $50; for Hotels, $200; and guaranteed to last 25 years.

Agents wanted in every State.

For particulars apply, for two weeks, to the inventor, Joshua Harrison, Tremont House, Chicago, or to the manufacturers, Wm. Resor & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

TESTIMONIAL.

[From Sir John Benson, Architect of the Dublin Exhibition.]

MESSRS. HARRISON & CO.: Gentlemen—With this I send a Bank letter of credit for Kitchener. I am happy to state that the Range has proved most satisfactory; works remarkably well, keeps a never-failing supply of boiling water for all over the house, and the consumption of fuel is not half what the old Range was.

I am, Gentlemen, your ob't servant, JOHN BENSON.

Monteneath, Cork, March 17th, 1854.

MERCHANTS' DINING ROOMS, CASTLE ST., LIVERPOOL, March 18th, 1856.

As proprietor of the above Rooms, I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the great capabilities of Mr. Harrison's Kitchener, which is erected on my premises. It is, under proper management, able to cook for 1200 to 1500 persons in three hours. DAVID ANDERSON.

As head cook of the Merchants' Dining Rooms, I have had every opportunity, during the past year, of testing the efficiency of Harrison's Patent Kitchener, and cheerfully certify that it is capable of performing all that has been said, and that it is required for the largest establishment. jy30-2w A. DAILY TRIBUNE.

No. 51 CLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

Monday Morning.....August 10, 1857.

A Falsehood Disposed of.

The Chicago Times has repeatedly charged that one of the editors of this paper, being disappointed in securing Mr. DOUGLAS' influence to aid him in an endeavor to get the Galena Post Office, now pursues that gentleman with malice that can be accounted for only on the supposition that his fancied injuries are of a personal rather than a political nature. There is not a word of truth in the story, from beginning to end. No editor of this paper was ever an applicant to Mr. DOUGLAS for his aid in getting the Galena, or any other Post Office, or any office of any name or kind; nor did any editor of this paper ever apply to him for any favor of any sort or description, personal or political. This, Mr. DOUGLAS knows, and that he should permit his organ to bolster up his cause in this city, day after day, by accusations of this sort, which he must see, and the entire falsity of which are evident to him, is only other proof of the desperation to which the party is driven. It would be too much to expect the Times to retract; but we defy Mr. DOUGLAS to prove what his friends assert. If application has been made to him by the editor referred to for his official influence, he will remember the time when and the place where.—Let us have the proof; or stop the lie at once!

The Election in St. Louis.

"The Chicago Times wants the TRIBUNE to explain how it happens that Rollins, the American Free State candidate, only had 1848 majority in St. Louis over Stewart, the Pro-Slavery Democratic candidate? Well, we think 1,848 Free Soil majority in any city in a slave State a very satisfactory result.

But Rollins did not expect to receive all the American votes, nor all the Benton Democrats. He was the nominee of no Convention. He ran on his own hook as the candidate of the Liberals of all parties. The Pro-Slavery man, on the other hand, had the support of all parties opposed to him. Stewart was called the National Democratic candidate. It was not denied that Rollins had acted with the American party. The charge of Know-Nothingism caused more than 1,000 Free Soil Germans to stay away from the polls in St. Louis. His well-known Emancipation sentiments on the other hand handed every Pro-Slavery vote in the city against him. Hundreds of Pro-Slavery Know-Nothings voted for Stewart. This is not denied by any body.

At the August election one year ago, the Democracy were split; they ran two candidates for Governor, each claiming to be the simon pure, with the following result:

Democratic for Bissell	4,301
Democratic for Reynolds	3,227
Regular American candidate, Kunz	9,137
	4,710
Democratic majority	1,427

A year passed away, and the issue was changed. It was no longer Democrats against Know Nothings, but Slave State against Free State, with the whole influence and patronage of the Administration on the side of the former, and the candidate of the latter embarrassed by the cry against him of being a Know Nothing. Now mark the result:

Free State candidate for Governor, Trumbull	4,905 votes.
Stewart, Slave State Democrat	4,749
Free Soil Democratic majority	1,651

What has become of the National Democratic majority of 4,429 polled one year ago? If the Times can suck any consolation from the result of the late election in St. Louis, it is certainly welcome to it.

Hopeful.

It has been the habit of the Cairo Times and Delta, a Border Ruffian organ of this State, to demolish its opponents with the epithet "Abolitionist" when reason and argument failed, or when found inapplicable to the case in hand.—With that journal, the word used in its offensive and contemptuous sense, has been the climax of all political discussion. Latterly, in the agitation in Cairo, consequent upon the negro riots, the editor of the Delta had the courage to speak out plainly and manfully in opposition to the practice of kidnapping free blacks on the soil of Illinois, and selling them in Slavery in some of the border Slave States. For this one act, though he protests all the while that he is "sound on the goose," he is charged with Abolitionism in its deepest and most virulent form. That he writhes under it, and exhibits contortions that are painful to behold, is evident.

The Times and Delta is on the anxious seat. Let it by all means persevere. Having attained the sublime of heresy in Amalgamation politics, to wit, the notion that kidnapping is not the chief end of the American citizen, we think the Times and Delta may pause and take breath. It will not answer to do these things hastily. We shall look for growth by and by. Milk is the proper nutriment for babes. Let the Times and Delta be put out to careful nursing. It will be a robustious urchin anon, and ready for this strong meat of political virility. There are few more hopeful cases than the Times and Delta.

National Horse-Show at Galesburg.

A Grand National Horse-Show and Ladies Equestrian Fair, will be held at Galesburg, Knox County, Ill., on the 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th days of September. Premiums will be distributed to the amount of $1,500, for stallions, geldings, carriage horses, draught horses, rackers, pacers, trotters, colts, mules, trained elks, &c. The following classes of premiums are offered for lady equestrians:

Best Lady Rider, [illegible]	30
Gold Watch and Guard	100
Silver Pitcher	50
Silver Pitcher	30
Silver Pitcher	20
Elegant Bracelet, Breast Pin and Earrings	20
Elegant Bracelet, Breast Pin and Earrings	10

The first and second days, and the forenoon of the third, will be occupied with the exhibition of the animals competing for premiums. The afternoon of the third day is set apart for the lady equestrians. The fourth day will be occupied with a grand auction sale of the stock. Persons and stock will be carried over the railroads on the same terms as to the State Fair at Peoria.

The Detroit Bear.

We judge from the ravages of this animal in the columns of the Free Press, that the bear has fatally surrounded Detroit. The Tribune of that city insists that it is all a hoax, and publishes a post-mortem examination of the bear, in which the stomach of the beast is subjected to various tests for small boy. Nothing is found indicating that peculiar refreshment, but a half sheet of the Detroit Free Press is discovered containing a leading article on Kansas affairs. This, it is supposed, led to severe constipation resulting in the death of the bear.

Consolidation of the Lake Shore Railroads.

Mr. WARREN, President of the Lake Shore R. R., has issued the following circular to the stockholders of the proposed consolidation:

OFFICE OF THE MILWAUKEE & CHICAGO }
R. R. Co., New York, July 11, '57. }

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE MILWAUKEE AND CHICAGO R. R. CO.—A meeting of the stockholders of this Company will be held at their office in the City of Chicago, on the 11th day of August next, at 11 o'clock A. M., to vote upon the question of approving the action of the Directors consolidating said Company with the Milwaukee and Mississippi Company, and to transact such other business as may be incidental thereto.

It having been deemed advantageous both by our Company and by the Directors of the Southern Line, to consolidate said Companies into one Company, to be called the "Chicago and Milwaukee Railroad Company," for the management of which a board of twenty-one Directors were elected, consisting of Messrs. D. L. Harris, of Springfield, Mass., Geo. E. Wortlon of New York, and G. L. Hubby of Cleveland, Ohio, to make a just consolidation on the basis of the actual value of the respective roads, and the property and franchises of each.

The above named gentlemen, chosen as umpires, were mutually selected on account of their high standing for integrity and sound business qualifications; and having made their award and report to the agent of this meeting to be held a vote of the stockholders accepting the same, before the award is opened.

This course will avoid much delay in the consolidation, which, in a case of this kind, might defer the consolidation for months. That the award is a fair one the stockholders can rely, as the umpires are known as men of intelligence, and competent to decide upon the various advantages and disadvantages of each road.

The consolidation of these two roads into one, forming a continuous railroad line between Chicago and Milwaukee, two of the most prosperous cities of the West, will place the consolidated Company in possession of one of the first class thoroughfares of the country, which, from the ease of competing roads, and a line of road from which travel cannot be diverted, but where traffic every line of road now holds, or that can be built in the vicinity will necessarily tend to augment.

Respectfully yours,

G. K. WARREN, Pres.

Bridging the Mississippi.

Mr. J. W. BISSEL, architect of the bridge (that is to be) across the Mississippi at St. Louis, has lately been up the River as far as St. Anthony; and during the tour, made several interesting discoveries which he communicates to the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce in a formal letter. He says:

At St. Paul, a bridge is now in process of construction. One of the piers is placed in the river, and mechanics are busily at work upon the others. The engineer of the work assured me that over the channel, the timber would be 70 feet above the high water mark. Some of the steamboat owners told me that this will not be high enough by several feet, although most of the boating in that trade could pass under it. Testimony should be taken on this point, and a close watch kept on the structure.

At Dubuque the land has been purchased, the plans completed for a drawbridge, and the work will soon be let.

The same state of things exists at Lyons and Camanche.

At three other points bridges are contemplated, but I cannot ascertain that enough progress has been made to render any action at present necessary.

I hear that one or two bridges are proposed on the upper Missouri, but can get no definite information in relation thereto.

The cases of the last named four need immediate attention.

Mr. BISSELL intimated that an injunction would fit their structures remarkably well; whereupon, after a "few appropriate remarks" by Mr. Wall, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the chairman of commerce to present the communication of Mr. Bissel, to the mayor and city council, and request their aid in preserving the navigation of the Mississippi river unobstructed.

Whatever the Chamber of Commerce may do, it will be found that the Common Law doctrine, which has heretofore been that recognized by the Courts, must give way under the new order of things inaugurated by the extension of our wonderful railroad system. As long as commerce traversed navigable streams only in the direction of their channels, the Courts had no reason for moderating the stringency of their prohibitions of bridging; but since a new interest has grown up having less in importance and magnitude than the highway itself, the object of the meeting is to take a vote of the stockholders accepting the same, before the award is opened.

This course will avoid much delay in the consolidation, which, in a case of this kind, might defer the consolidation for months. That the award is a fair one the stockholders can rely, as the umpires are known as men of intelligence, and competent to decide upon the various advantages and disadvantages of each road.

The consolidation of these two roads into one, forming a continuous railroad line between Chicago and Milwaukee, two of the most prosperous cities of the West, will place the consolidated Company in possession of one of the first class thoroughfares of the country, which, from the ease of competing roads, and a line of road from which travel cannot be diverted, but where traffic every line of road now holds, or that can be built in the vicinity will necessarily tend to augment.

FROM KANSAS.

[FOUR LETTERS BY EX-GOVERNOR WALKER TO HORACE GREELEY.]

More about the Fraudulent Apportionment—Speech of Col. Williams A. Process—The greatest Speech Yet Made—The Duplicity of the Free State Party.

[Special Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

LAWRENCE, August 3d, 1857.

The pet of the Cabinet is worthy of its support. Let Buchanan stand firm. The Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi Democracy will come more wheel into ranks, and eulogize Gov. Walker as warmly and as unanimously as they have hitherto condemned him. He is daily preparing himself to be worthy of a proud niche in their National Democratic Pantheon of negro-driving Despots. Let Buchanan stand firm!

One of the greatest outrages ever perpetrated on the rights of a free people has just been unfolded. Gov. Walker is the author. It has been geared the trouble and the pain of explaining and exposing it by the author of the "Conquest of Kansas"—formerly of Chester, Pennsylvania—now of Lecompton, Kansas and Illinois—who now divides with Robinson and Lane, the political preeminence at the Free State party. He is a young man of talent, tenacity and worth, and will undoubtedly occupy a prominent official position in the History of this State. He leads the "Young America"—the radical and dominant element of the party—which is rather dissatisfied with the conservative tendencies of their senior representatives, Gov. Robinson and Gen. Lane will be elected to the Senate of the United States, and there is a wide-spread feeling in favor of Col. Phillips as the successor in the Governor's chair. A Democratic Gubernatorial ticket, with a "conservative" Republican with here no chance whatever for the position of Governor. Kansas will be the most ultra and radical State in the Confederacy.

The speech I refer to was delivered last night at Osawkee. The land land sales are conducted there. Osawkee is a second Lecompton. Gen. Lane, Col. Phillips and Mr. Parrin, of Lecompton, but I did not arrive until he had nearly concluded his speech. Mr. Perrin, of spread-eagle proclivities, appointed Wednesday afternoon, for a discussion of the political issues of the day between Gen. Lane, and announced that a meeting of citizens, without distinction of parties, would be held at half past seven o'clock, in the evening, when the two gentlemen would address the audience. Lane accepted the challenge, and stated that Col. Phillips, in behalf of the Free State men, would reply to Mr. Perrin to-night.

Osawkee plays Judas to Lecompton's Caesar, in the tragedy of Kansas life. There are drunken rows there every night. It seems to have a summer complaint with fights. Accidents are of frequent occurrence. It has one immense hotel, a smaller one, half a dozen stores, and fourteen or fifteen other houses. There are at present, however, great numbers of drunken booths, and a little village of squatter's tents in the vicinity.

To speak at night, in favor of the Topeka Constitution—on Saturday night, too, when so many are drunk, and a riot is so easily excited—requires a man of more nerve and earnestness than is generally found in political circles. The appearance of the "crowd" at first was decidedly unprepossessing. A wagon was brought for the speakers to stand in. In case of a riot, the position of the speaker—conspicuous, isolated, and in proximity to a lantern—would have rendered his escape impossible, if he had desired or attempted to shoot him. Yet Phillips spoke, and a "pluckier" speech I never listened to.

Mr. Perrin declined to speak at all, although he had convened the meeting. He did, however, speak after Phillips had concluded—after, as he supposed, the Free State champion had left for Lawrence. Perrin is wise in his generation.

As Mr. Phillips' speech is a thorough and able analysis and exposition of the Apportionment fraud, I will transcribe it in my notes, in full, as much of it is related to that subject.

MR. PHILLIPS' SPEECH.

You are called on to determine interests of no common magnitude. The settlement of the questions which now agitate Kansas, is devolved upon you, and will require the exercise of no common wisdom, moderation and patriotism. Your own interests, the future prosperity of Kansas and the whole country, and a vindication of the claim of justice to control the affairs of men, depend upon you. The deep interest which pervades every class of the community is evinced by the intensity of the struggle. I have seen much of both parties—earnest and sincere Free State men, and, I doubt not, many earnest and sincere Pro-Slavery men—but I am willing to concede my opinion in another, that respect which I claim for my own.

PAST PERIOD.

When the passage of the Kansas Nebraska Bill removed the restriction which prevented the introduction of Slavery, and the two hostile elements came together in battle—there was but one issue—Freedom or Slavery. That was what you struggled for then; but it is not the only issue now. The struggle has changed its ground. A fraud has originated a new issue—not more sacred but of more moment to you. An armed invasion from stalwart citizens—Christians by name—Free and reliable were the weapons by which Slavery sought to accomplish its purposes. The right to govern themselves was denied to the people. They assert that other question of usurpation and no usurpation. It did not destroy that of Freedom and Slavery, for that was involved in the struggle; but it necessarily took precedence—as the people must first recover their power before they could exercise it for the best interests of the country nationally.

THE PRESENT ISSUE.

This, then, is the great question before you. You are to determine whether fraud and violence triumph or whether the great effort of our Republican fathers shall prevail. You are to determine whether a precedent of wrong and infamy shall be set to the future destinies of our common country.

THE TRUE POLICY.

Let me urge upon you the necessity of planting your feet upon an unwavering rock, and never falter until there is not a fragment left. Trample under your feet your own worst enemies—the men that threaten your honor and best interests. That is not a factious spirit. We have being accused of being factious and disorderly. Dispelling the delusion point to our endurance when there was no law to shelter or protect us. And we indignantly repudiate as will ever repudiate the bogus enactments. It is not law—for nothing is law, or can have the sanctity of law save the will of the people, legitimately expressed. Never will submit to it. Never be sure all of you that it will be a vain task to recognize more by fraud to establish that power. Such fraud will not be permanent in our land. It may protract the struggle. They may involve more fearful difficulties than have yet mantled us, but they can not settle the question nor restore tranquility to Kansas. Of this rest assured.

THE TOPEKA CONSTITUTION.

The State organization under the Topeka offers a true and adequate remedy for the evils of which the people complain. It was originated at a time of all others when it could settle the question, when it stripped of their political power, and they, in such a situation resorted to their right to form a State government for themselves, a Territory may legitimately do. The precedents of California and Maryland and Arkansas were guides, and the necessities of the people led them to the true point and peaceful remedy as the one best suited to their interests and which must be hailed with satisfaction and acquiescence by every true Republican and patriot. You are called upon to vote on that people's Constitution on Monday next. Its only formidable element of strength is the popular power behind it. It is a Free State Constitution. The State government under it will owe none of its authority to fraud or usurpation. It is a large majority of the people are really behind that Constitution, it will possess a power that no authority in the country will dare to question. If the constitution with the people behind it, is invincible. Let me refer you to a late editorial article in the Cincinnati Gazette on the subject for a defense of this doctrine. It is said to have been written or dictated by Gen. Cass. It says:

"The Constitution must come from the people, or other power or form of government will be imposed, by arms under Heaven.

And again it says forth that it is irregular for a Territorial Legislature to initiate the steps for a State Constitution, and adds that such irregularity can only be overlooked if the Legislature fully and popular vote has accepted it and thus given it the substance.

The Topeka Constitution is not liable to such an objection. It came legitimately from the people, and at a time when they had no other government. It has already received the sanction of the popular vote and on Monday it will again be submitted, and if thus re-accepted and endorsed, it will possess all the legitimate elements of any Constitution.

Then is another reason why we should cling to the Topeka Constitution. The Convention recently claiming to be elected will assemble in Lecompton in September to frame a Constitution. That Constitution they will not submit to the people, or if submitted at all, it will be perverted at the polls or subsequently so that will be equivalent to no submission at all. There is not a man within the sound of my voice who does not know that it would be a pastime to make such a Constitution as they will frame, and submit it to the people. They cannot afford it, for they know it would be voted down. If, then upon the eve of the formation of such a Constitution, the people's Constitution can be so abandoned what would be the result? It would go up to Congress alone and every daughter who wished to palliate the villainy of his vote by a three quarters majority may say: "We have an unanimous Constitution, but the people abandoned it when the constitution was being framed, thereby showing its abandonment to this." Remember this might be, there were men base enough to do it. Every motive of interest and safety therefore, prompts you to rally around the ballot box and vote for the Topeka Constitution. Let every man who attempt to pick flaws in the Topeka Constitution. Whenever you combine a body of men to vote for it, the whole Slavery Shin-plasters will be compelled to harmonize the variations in opinion and feeling as near as possible. All cannot get what they want, but all will have a portion of what they want in another, and you in a third. I do not think that another Constitution so free from objection could be framed. The framers of that instrument had nothing but the righteousness of their cause to sustain them, and that is enough. It would have been as free from objection and as strong as possible. Let me tell those Pro-Slavery men now listening to me, that there will never be a again a Constitution framed for Kansas, that the people will accept, which will be so favorable to Pro-Slavery principles. Never again will there be such a yielding spirit to their supposed wishes.

THE MONSTER FRAUD.

There are other points which I must look of ground should be plotted at the present moment. We have been earnestly invited to the Territorial elections, those elections have been grossly and outrageously stripped of their political power, and they, in such a situation resorted to their right to form a State government for themselves, a Territory may legitimately do. The precedents of California and Maryland and Arkansas were guides, and the necessities of the people led them to the true point and peaceful remedy as the one best suited to their interests and which must be hailed with satisfaction and acquiescence by every true Republican and patriot. You are called upon to vote on that people's Constitution on Monday next. Its only formidable element of strength is the popular power behind it. It is a Free State Constitution. GLORY TO THE HIGHEST!—Nothing can equal the success with which Dr. H. James' glorious Extract of Cannabis Indica has been administered, within the past few days, to the sick of Chicago and vicinity, by Dr. Thomas Tilton, the old discoverer's son-in-law, fellow-traveler and pupil. Doctor Tilton took rooms at the Massasoit House only a little over a week ago, and has been administering the Extract of Cannabis Indica, with the best of good results, to persons afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Liver Complaint, Ulcerated Stomach, Clergymen's Sore Throat, Coughs, Colds, and nervous excitement and debility. For all these complaints, the Cannabis Indica is a certain and speedy remedy. It is a sovereign cure, even of the most hopeless cases, as thousands stand ready to testify, under oath if necessary. It restores vitality to the shattered nerves, it heals all internal sores, tubucles and ulcerations, allays all internal inflammations, acts as a substitute for food, builds up decaying fibre and muscle, exhilarates the spirits, is stimulous without reactionary power, purifies all fluids and secretions, and tones up the stomach to accord with all the requirements of the best of health. There is no medicine in the world to equal it. Give it to a person in the last stage of disease, and its beneficial effects are made apparent in an hour. Dr. Tilton will remain for the season and we advise you to call on him at once, either in your own behalf or in behalf of your suffering friends. He will furnish you with the Extract, or he will furnish you with a recipe by which you can make it yourself. Take advantage of his stay here. Go to him at No. 3 Massasoit House, and have him apply his father-in-law's latest invention to you. It is called the "Spiro Dynameter," and in a moment will tell the exact strength and precise condition of your lungs. By addressing Dr. Tilton a note through the Chicago Post Office, inclosing four postage stamps (12 cents), a recipe will be sent in return, free of charge, to any part of the Union.

The numerous "Imitations" on both sides of the Atlantic speak loudly of its merits; and the fact that it received the only Medal awarded to foreign Sauce at the New York Exhibition attests the estimation in which it is held by those selected with special reference to their ability to judge of the quality of similar articles of table use. And being the most popular Sauce in the market unprincipled parties are offering for sale spurious Sauce by slightly varying the spelling of "LEA & PERRINS," only proprietors of the Genuine Sauce.

The Atlantic Telegraph Cable.

A GLOOMY VIEW OF THE SUCCESS OF THE ENTERPRISE.

[From the London Times.]

The Agamemnon is still moored off the wharf at Glasse & Elliot's yard, though this afternoon, with the ebb of the spring tide, she commences her voyage to Sheerness. There her compasses will be adjusted, as she is too deep in the water to be swung at Greenhithe. At present she has anything but a sightly aspect, the great dead weight of the cable, and the rather ponderous appliances for paying it out having altered her trim appearance for the worse. To approach her from the yard is neither an easy nor a cleanly task, and the visitor, however cautious, will ascertain, beyond a doubt, that the old maxim that one cannot touch pitch and not be defiled, is strictly true with regard to tar. The wire, as we have already explained in previous notices, has been wound over the floating stages from the wharf into the hold of the vessel. The machine by which this was done registered each fathom, furlong and mile, as it passed, while the usual apparatus was employed to test the integrity of the conducting wire. This test, however, would only show when the conductor was severed, and not until the time for its committal to the deep arrives, will it be seen whether it has been so attenuated in certain portions to part during the process of paying out. From the small machine on deck it was wound at once to the hold, where it lies in one stupendous coil forty-five feet in diameter, and nearly fourteen feet high. It is beautifully arranged here, and laid coil over coil with the most perfect accuracy, and every precaution taken to guard against a "kink" or fault occurring in the paying out. Its being ranged in one mass will much facilitate the operation of submerging. On board the Niagara, we believe, it is stowed away in three coils, a decidedly objectionable arrangement, but one which it was impossible to avoid. While looking at the ponderous mass on board the Agamemnon, one cannot fail to be struck by the heat of the place in which it is stowed away, a heat which might excite well founded fears as to its influence on the gutta percha. If we are not misinformed, the heat of the sun destroyed many miles of wire by melting out the gutta percha, while the cable was lying in Glasse & Elliot's yard. Proper precautions should be taken to avert risk from this point. We have already explained to our readers how the cable is coated with closely woven spiral wires to prevent damage to the core in paying out; but in consequence of the two halves having been made in different places, one at Birkenhead, by Messrs. Newall, and the other at Greenwich, by Glasse & Elliot, a most egregious blunder has been committed. It will scarcely be credited, but it is nevertheless true, that the twist of the spiral wires of the Birkenhead half is in exactly the opposite direction to the twist of the wires in the half made at Greenwich.—Thus, when joined in the centre of the Atlantic, they will form a right and a left hand screw, and the tendency of each will be to assist the other to untwist, and expose the core. By attaching a solid weight to the centre joining, it is hoped this difficulty and danger may be overcome, but none attempt to conceal that the mistake is much to be regretted. We are informed that Messrs. Glasse & Elliott had nearly 100 miles of their portion of the cable completed before Messrs. Newall commenced theirs, and that therefore the fault lies with the firm which began last.

The apparatus to be used in paying out the cable is also looked upon by engineers as very ill adapted to its purpose. With a cable of such extreme lightness and no great strength, and attached to a vessel like the Agamemnon, the slightest possible check or hitch occurring would part it like a thread. The friction drums should therefore have been of the slightest kind consistent with preventing a "rush," and in fact only sufficient to ease it over gently. Yet it is no exaggeration to say that the machinery to be used is the very reverse of all this, and its massive aspect strikes dismay into every well wisher to the scheme. Some of the first engineers of the day consider it too heavy, and have expressed most unfavorable opinions concerning it and its probable effects upon the cable; and even those intimately connected with the plan and its details do not disguise their regret that such a machinery should be resorted to. It consists of four pulleys or iron wheels, about six feet in diameter, with very deep flanges or V grooves, in which the cable will rest. Round two wheels the cable will be wound twice, and round two wheels once, so as to form two figures of 8. As if the friction of this were not enough, each wheel is connected with massive toothed wheels, and the motion of all made equal at the expense of a proportionate strain on the cable. In case of a fault or kink going overboard, there is an auxiliary apparatus, consisting of two wheels, round each of which the cable will be wound five times. These will be worked by a small engine placed immediately beneath, so that, if necessary, a portion of the cable can be hauled in again and the kink or fault remedied. The machine which works this can also be made to turn the wheels over which the cable passes, if their friction should be too much for its strength; but, though this will lessen the strain in paying out, it increases the risk from a sudden lurch of the vessel, when the cable must either run rapidly or part altogether. Strong breaks are attached to the wheels of the paying out machinery, which act powerfully, though very slowly. But, with the friction we have mentioned on the wheels themselves, the breaks are never likely to be resorted to. Of the auxiliary engine for hauling in we need say nothing except that we sincerely hope its services may never be required. After passing off the wheels the cable runs in a protected groove along the quarter-deck over a large wheel at the stern of the vessel. This wheel has a very deep trumpet-shaped groove, and all around it is carefully flushed off, and wood work placed so that not an angle is in the way. The screw of the Agamemnon is also cased in to prevent any chance of the wire fouling it. In case of a strong wind before which the vessel would pitch too heavily, or a gale blowing, a simple but very ingenious apparatus is provided to suspend the process of of submerging till more favorable opportunities occur. Two wheels, similar to that at the stern, are fixed on each side of the bows of the vessels. In case of a strong wind only a powerful rope of great length, and capable of bearing a strain of ten tons, will be fastened to the coil, which can be severed and allowed to sink as near the bottom of the ocean as the length of the wire mooring-rope will permit. The Agamemnon will then turn head to wind, and, steaming against it, take off any undue strain upon the electric cable itself, and so remain until moderate weather allows the operation to be continued. The wire rope, with the cable attached, can then be hauled in, the cable carefully rejoined, and the submerging gone on with as before. Should the squadron meet with any severe weather, and it not be considered prudent to retain the cable end on board at all, the wire rope will be attached as before, and the end of that secured again to an immense buoy. The whole can then be let adrift, to bob about as the winds and waves may choose, the vessels remaining as near the buoy as possible. In order to assist them in finding it again immediately, the uppermost end of the buoy will be fitted with four powerful reflectors placed under a flag, so as to be plainly visible amid the dark expanse of waters, even at a considerable distance. The buoy once picked up, the wire rope can be wound in, and with it the electric cable at its end. The buoys are capable of supporting a weight of seven tons—of course much greater than they will ever be required to bear, and are so placed at the sides of the Niagara and Agamemnon as to be launced clear of the ship in an instant.

Literature and Politics in England—The Defeat of Mr. Thackeray.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

The defeat of Mr. Thackeray in his canvass to represent the City of Oxford in Parliament is not surprising. As for a genuine reverence for literary men and literature, the English have it not. Their great Dr. Johnson says, in the preface to his dictionary, that literature is the chief glory of a nation. As a mere abstract enunciation, that is true; but, applied to the indispensable entities of social position and politico-social rank, as they affect the man of letters, and to a recognition of the personal majesty inherent in genius, there was never a greater lie uttered than that literature is the glory of the English nation, so far as the nation is represented by the Government. It is a lie as broad as her earth-girdling possessions; as hoary as her Norman Conquest. But, in opposition to proverbs, we assert that the intensity of belief is always in the ratio of the philosophical transparency of a lie, and the world's worship of "pagod things of saber sway," and of all manner of creeping things of fetishism, proves it. England, in regard to her national or political respect for letters and literary men, as such, is the incarnation of snobbery. Take her two most illustrious poets—Shakspeare and Burns, representatives of widely diverse epochs—and how do we find them treated? Of Shakspeare, personally and biographically, we know next to nothing. All that the industry, enthusiasm and wealth of antiquarian societies have been able to evoke respecting him amounts to this nothing. We do not know, except by one of his sonnets, that he felt the pangs of social degradation; but that he was socially degraded can be affirmed by scientific induction. That his genius, the most wonderful which ever radiated, did not secure him the right to sit at the table, as an equal, with the veriest hanger on of the Court, is just as much matter of history, by induction, as if we had the concurrent testimony of his co-laborers in literature, superadded to his own, under his hand and seal.—All literature—all art—all the divinities in England, except those which belong to the cross-carrying Bench of Bishops—are despised, so far as the Government represents the people and claims to reward genius. The man of genius there is the man of sorrows, if he have genuine pride. The law which made Shakespeare a vagabond because he was connected with a play-house, is hardly reformed. We know nothing of Shakespeare because literature was despised in England—rank, rank being "the thing." Had Shakespeare been a noble, we should have had his biography; had he been a successful fillibuster, he would have been ... to the peerage ... the temporalities, eternities, and ... royalty and nobility, appreciated him not. He is a myth so much that Miss Delia Bacon has produced one—two solid volumes to prove that Shakespeare was as Joseph Miller, who never made a joke or had an idea, the ... all the jocular ... of his time were attributed to him ... and that Bacon, Raleigh, and other ... high priests of reason living at a time when a ... divine utterance was a capital offence, wrote as an exoteric utterance of an esoteric faith, plays—"the plays of Shakspeare," so called—to preach the gospel. How extensively ... and shamelessly does ... must be the personation of the great man, the poet of poets, when such a theory could be even ventured upon as that he was a mere linkboy, call-boy, property-man, loafer, literary clothes-horse! Literature the chief glory of a nation! Faugh!

Now take Burns. "Of all the later poets, Burns goes most directly to the heart, and intensifies common sense. He was an inspired clodpole; he was a bucolic monster; he was caught—lionized in Edinburgh, and he has recorded his ecstasies in being placed face to face with women of grace, polish, style—of how their ineffable winningness entranced his soul. But what did the Government do for this chief glory of her literature? Oh, Bethlehem! Oh, Nazareth! Turned the sweetest music Scotland ever sang into the current of the whisky cask, and let Robert Burns breathe his last sigh through an exciseman's bunghole!

When a nation surrenders its right to think; when it does not believe in the Individual Man, but in the State as the fountain of honor; when it has not reached the power to discriminate between the real and the false, between the hereditary swindle and the actual fair play; when it leaves a government to make legislators out of particular families and breeds; then it is a nation of Hindoos in fact, and recognizes castes. Of course the fighting caste—the fillibuster and land-robber—will then be the highest. The man of letters, the man of genius, the reformer will be little less than the flunky, the scullion, the boot-black and bootlick of the noble fillibuster and robber. Sometimes a fillibuster in power may have certain generous emotions, certain throbs in common with human dignity, and may lift genius out of the gutter. Such was it with Addison and some of his syncronares. But exceptions prove rules. The history of England, as a whole proves the inherent contempt which hereditary fillibusters and land robbers have for letters and science, by the contempt in which men of letters and science are held. They neither marry nor give in marriage with the nobility. They are lower caste. In making this affirmation, we are quite ready to measure arguments with any Old England or New England flunky who holds the opposing doctrine. The proof is easy. The English House of Lords—the peerage—the hereditary legislature—is considered the highest honor due to great service. But the peerage has never been bestowed on any kind of service except fillibustering and land robbery. All the prides, and all the paraphernalia of the lords, are those of the fillibuster and robber. A few years ago they lived in armed castles, and now they galvanize the past with the retention of coats-of-arms and the robes of chivalric times on state occasions. The only service which the noble families enter upon is fillibustering and land robbing; that is to say, the Army and Navy, and its appendices, the Church political and hence militant, and the Red tape militant or diplomacy. Government—the art of ruling the people—and feeling socially as well as politically above those whom they rule, are the pursuit and sentiment of the nobility. The tub to the whale in England is the woolsack. Of course, the son of a portrait painter, and the grandson of a barber, may be "law lords," because the art of griping and holding lands estates and hereditary titles must be accompanied with legal forms; and the technicalities of special legal instruction, acquisition, talent and genius, are necessary to legislation—to the drawing up and speaking to Bills, and the holding High Courts of lordly judication. The existence, therefore, of law lords—the elevation of lawyers to the woolsack—proves no democratic element in England, but simply aristocratic inability to do without them. The Bench of Bishops has nothing democratic in it, and does not alter the position we take. When the thieves originally fell out in the time of King John as to the spoils, the Church, of course, came in for a share of plunder as a Church—as representatives of an hereditary apostolic side, and not of a democratic principle and a belief in the sacredness and classicality of every actual era.

In further elucidation of this national flunkyism, let us cite the case of the great James Watt, who, according to the inscription upon his statute, "directing the force of original genius early exercised in philosophical research, "to the improvement of the steam engine, enlarged the resources of his country, increased the "powers of man, and rose to an eminent place "among the illustrious followers of science and "the real benefactors of the world." It would exceed our limits to record the neglects and contempt he met with from the aristocracy at the head of the Government—of how, in his anguish, he declared that the only thing the Government seemed to despise and ignore was originality and usefulness; but his "Life and Correspondence" is the saddest chapter, as well as the most crushing commentary on the falsehood that literature, or the record of the arts and sciences, is the chief glory of a nation such as the English represented in its Government.

As the science of killing—the Duke, Dux or military leader, being the highest rank after the Sovereign—by strict logic, the science of lifesaving, the medical art with all its literature, is commensurately despised in England. In Scott's "Fair Maid of Perth," the contempt in which a Doctor of Medicine was held in chivalric times is well set forth; and the low status of the profession appears by the manner in which it figures in the drama and novels. In common with poets, writers, painters, sculptors, musicians, inventors, philosophers, astronomers, and all scientific and esthetic men, doctors of medicine have been socially despised in England—or, in plain English, none have been considered of sufficient dignity and importance to be elevated among the Dukes, or hereditary fillibusters. The highest rank attained by a literary man was given to Scott; he was made a baronet—because of his immense Toryism, and his tremendous deference to rank. The case of Bulwer need not be cited, as he is a man of family. The roar of the French Revolution in 1848 frightened the insular lords from their security, and an ovation was accordingly prepared to art and industry in the Exhibition of the Crystal Palace. But the inauguration seemed as purely military as the preparations for the field of battle. We believe the projector and architects were on the dais near Majesty, but all else not bishopric black and white was soldierly scarlet and gold. It was an attempt to combine Chivalry with Industry—to hold on to power a little longer by not overlooking the fact that revolutions are now the uprisings of despised men of letters and men of toil. But the force of Chivalry could no further go; when it came to be a question how to reward the great mechanical genius of Stephenson—the railroad maker—the new light of national wealth—Her Sacred Majesty (the old term, "Gracious Majesty," abolished since the time of the Stuarts, being revived within the last ten years)—Her Sacred Majesty offered to Stephenson a knighthood—in common with every flunky of an alderman who fetches up an address on the birth of a new prince or princess, or during a royal visit to his borough. But—marvelous to say, and what resounds to the fame of Stephenson as much as his engineering—he declined the honor! The world, then, does move! The leavings of snobs were then at last in England distasteful to a man of genius and a national benefactor.

Literature, art, science, these being no glory in England in the estimation of the Government, which claims to represent a loyal people, we repeat that we are not surprised at Mr. Thackeray's defeat. We hope that it will confirm his democratic faith, and add fresh keenness to his pen of steel. He will now recognize the truth of the difference between a semi-barbarous government, the product of the fighting ages, and one which can appreciate other glories than those of the stamp of Waterloo and Trafalgar. Had Thackeray been a titled soldier, and one of the Six Hundred who rode

"Into the jaws of death, Into the mouth of hell,"

at Balaklava, and come out alive, he would have been elected to Parliament, in common with the other noble supporters of the chivalric, warmaking, literature-despising Government—and hence people.

THE VOTE.

OXFORD, July 21.

The polling commenced yesterday morning at the usual hour, when the friends of Mr. Cardwell led off by a small majority.

About ten o'clock it was evident that Mr. Thackeray stood a fair chance of coming in second best, being over 70 in minority, and at 12 this had increased to 100. After 1 o'clock the people began to assemble at the corners of the streets, and in front of the Mitre, Mr. Thackeray's principal committee room, and also of the Star Hotel, the head-quarters of Mr. Cardwell's friends.

A little before 4 there was not a place of business to be found open, except our usual good-natured election acquaintances, the friendly public houses. Speaking upon that point I am inclined to think that some of the college butlers must have opened their hearts, and the buttery beer barrels at the same time, for during the last three hours of the poll some fifty or sixty roughs, far descended in the inebriating scale, created considerable annoyance by assembling before the respective committee rooms, howling for their favorite candidate.

The following is the state of the poll during the day:

	Cardwell.	Thackeray.
9 o'clock	[illegible]	[illegible]
10 "	[illegible]	[illegible]
12 "	[illegible]	[illegible]
1 "	[illegible]	[illegible]
2 "	[illegible]	[illegible]
3 "	[illegible]	[illegible]
4 "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Majority for Cardwell 67.

At about half past six Mr. J. Towle, the Mayor, delivered the declaration of the poll at the Town Hall, amid great confusion.

Thanks were returned for Mr. Cardwell; and Mr. Thackeray addressed the meeting at considerable length amid great cheering, when the proceedings terminated.

A LARGE FARM.—One of the editors of the Spirit of the Agricultural Press paid a visit to the farm of M. L. Sullivant, in the south-east part of this county, a few days since, and writes for his paper an account of his observations while there. From his article we condense the following facts: The farm contains over twenty thousand acres, and although only about seven thousand acres are yet under cultivation, employs over one hundred men. Three thousand acres are planted in corn; and the editor estimates that the farm will produce at least 15,000 bushels of wheat this year, besides large quantities of barley, oats, flax, &c. Mr. Sullivant employs five different reapers this season, and threshes immediately after cutting, employing a steam engine as his power in the latter operation. A blacksmith's shop is ... employed constantly in repairing farm implements; a school is also kept up for the education of the children of the workmen. One hundred and twenty-five yoke of oxen and fifty horses are employed.

It must be acknowledged that this is something of a farm, and that Mr. Sullivant possesses much executive ability to successfully manage such a stupendous concern, yet we are informed that everything moves on as regular as the click of a chronometer. This is but one of the many large farms which now grace the broad prairies of this and adjoining counties, some of which are as large as this, but large enough to excite the wonder and admiration of outsiders, who know nothing of ... —Urbana (Ill.) Union.

Real Estate for Sale.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAIL ROAD.
LANDS FOR SALE.
THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD Company invites the attention of Agriculturists and Farmers to the fertile lands adjacent to their road, which are offered for sale upon low terms, and long credit at low rates of interest.
It is the policy and wish of the Company to sell all their lands to actual settlers; and no inducement is offered to speculators; in fact none will be sold on long credit, without the distinct obligation of cultivation.
Illinois occupies the most central position of the Western States, and comprises the most fertile section of the belt of land extending from the Atlantic Ocean to the Missouri River, and including New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Northern Missouri.
Unlike the States North of us, the productions are not checked by rigorous winters—nor is the heat of summer oppressive. The lands West of the Missouri gradually and rapidly decrease in fertility, till they blend with the Great American Plain, and being chiefly, if not solely, adapted to grazing, can never compete with those of this State.
The lands bordering upon the Mississippi and Kansas Rivers, and upon the lines of the proposed roads in Iowa, have been taken up, and are now selling at from $10 to $15 per acre, although settlers have to pay heavy freights upon the transportation of their agricultural tools, furniture and goods; and when their crops are produced, the extra cost of transportation to Eastern markets exceeds the cost of production.
Looking to the future growth of our country, this state, which combines the most favorable temperature with the richest soil and most healthy climate, is, for all time to be the great grain producing district. It is full of mineral wealth, such as Coal, Iron, Lead, Limestone, &c., and has already the advantages of churches and schools, of population, and of the investment of capital. Moreover, there is scarcely a county in Illinois which has not a supply of timber. The northern section of the State includes at least 2,000,000 acres of the best quality of timber land; and the extensive pineries in adjoining States, accessible by the Lakes, furnish Chicago with an immense quantity of timber and lumber, amounting in 1856 to 460,000,000 feet.
Illinois, especially during the last ten years, has been rapidly developing her resources. The population is now about 1,500,000, and eighty millions of dollars have been expended for Railroads, which, with the waters of the Mississippi, Illinois River, the Michigan Canal and Lake communications, afford cheap and convenient means for the transportation of her products to every market. About one million acres of the Company's lands have already been sold, and many flourishing villages evince the rapidly increasing property of the country. Such is the facility and economy with which these lands can be cultivated, that in two years farmers can readily surround themselves with all the comforts of old settled farms in the Eastern States; and such is their fertility and productiveness, that property purchased at from $6 to $30 per acre at six years' credit and three per cent. interest, can be fully paid for within that time, to other with the cost of improvements, by extraordinary industry, from the profits of the crops.
Although it is evident that lands in the vicinity of railroads in Illinois will advance to $25 or even $100 per acre within ten years, yet the interests of this Company are more advanced by having their property in the hands of farmers to settle the country, relying upon the business of the road for its chief profit, and to enable it to discharge its obligations to the State. These considerations induce the policy of rapid sales, affording long terms, progressive and increasing for two years past, and will be pursued till the lands are finally disposed of. No encouragement is given to speculative purchasers, as the Company does not wish to dispose of any of its lands except for actual settlement and cultivation. It is evident, therefore, that the best interests of settlers can nowhere be as well promoted as by purchasing and settling upon these lands.
For information as to prices, terms, etc. apply to
JOHN WILSON,
Land Com'r I. C. R. R. Co., Chicago, Ills.

Fine Residence Property
ON MOST FAVORABLE TERMS.
THE UNDERSIGNED IS NOW PREPARED to sell at private sale, to parties desiring first-class Residence Property, and willing to improve immediately, Two Hundred Lots in Blocks five, six, seven, eight, nine, twelve and thirteen in Union Park, Second Addition, in West Chicago.
That the advantages of the West Division are fast becoming appreciated is evident from the fact that its population, as shown by the census returns is double itself every three years. If that rate of increase should continue, the number of its inhabitants will amount in six years to one hundred and fifty thousand. It contains most of the high ground of the city, and is exposed to the cool winds, and on the healthy side of the city, where the south-west winds of the hot season bring pure air from the prairie, instead of the noxious vapors of the river, into which nearly all our sewers empty themselves. With one-half the harbor front, and two-thirds the territory within the city bounds, and unlimited room for expansion beyond, receiving all the great Railroads from the west, north and north-west, the main business streets must run through it, the only part of Chicago where the products of Northern Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Nebraska can be received and shipped without the necessity of crossing a draw-bridge,—it requires no sagacity to see that in time it will become the principal business part of the city, as it is already the first in population, and that Lots there will rise in value steadily and rapidly for many years to come.
The property now offered is strictly first-class, and is the only first-class property in Chicago that can be bought at a price and upon terms within the reach of gentlemen of moderate incomes. It extends from Lake street north to Pepot place, and from Ada street west to within one block of Union Park, a beautiful public park containing eighteen acres of ground, and the only large park that will ever be laid out within walking distance of the centre of the city. According to a topographical survey made in 1854, by D. Harper, Esq., then City Superintendent, the surface of this property is the highest, being seventeen feet above Lake Michigan, and ten feet higher than the natural surface at the corner of Lake and Clark streets—a very important consideration in view of the general and inevitable importance of filling up and raising the grade in those localities where it will be required.
The east line of the property is about one mile, or fifteen minutes' walk, from the new Merchants' Exchange, the commercial centre, and within four blocks of the geographical centre of the city. The buildings of the Chicago Theological Seminary, to be erected next year, at an expense of over a hundred thousand dollars, will be in the immediate vicinity. Walker's omnibuses, running to State street, pass on Lake street every few hours, and will be increased in number as the public accommodation may require. The Gas and Water Pipes and Sewers will soon be laid on the principal streets. The market house, good public and private schools, and churches of nearly all the denominations, are within a short distance, and the neighborhood is in all respects pleasant and desirable.
Each block is well fenced, and every lot has a good new sidewalk in front, and is handsomely ornamented with elm, maple, mountain ash, larch, spruce and fir trees, taken from a nursery and set out by an experienced landscape gardener.
The conditions of sale will be as follows:—1st. Every buyer to begin a building within six months. 2d. No house to be erected within ten feet of the street line, or of a less value than one thousand dollars. 3d. Not more than two lots to be sold to any one person, unless he will engage to build [illegible] improvements to the value of two thousand dollars, when he shall have the privilege of four lots. 4th. Parties wishing to build immediately may purchase without making any cash payment.
Prices will range from forty to seventy-five dollars per front foot.
TITLE.—A full and complete abstract will be exhibited from the Canal Trustees, Chase & Co., with a general warranty deed from Wm. B. Ogden. The undersigned will give agreements, in the usual form, with thirty days' grace, for special warranty deed, taking notes for the deferred payments.
TERMS OF PAYMENT.—One-tenth of the purchase money down, one-tenth in six months, one-tenth in twelve months, and the balance in eighteen months, one-tenth annually; and the balance in eighteen monthly payments; or one-third down and all the balance at the end of ten years, with interest semi-annually, at seven per cent per annum; or one-third down and all the balance at the end of ten years, with interest semi-annually, as the buyer may prefer. Further time may be given to parties who will improve a deed at any time.

Medicines, &c.

ONE DOLLAR
WILL BUY
ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public, named DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operation of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.
DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums. Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel, without any of its deleterious effects.
Though possessing new medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and were never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the INVIGORATOR, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine, tried and known in his circle. It has rarely ever failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.
INDIGESTION being caused by a deranged Liver, is cured by the Liver Invigorator.
JAUNDICE is caused by an improper action of the Liver, and as a proof that the INVIGORATOR relieves this disease, let any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and his skin will be as clear as ever.
COSTIVENESS can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses occasionally, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.
SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the INVIGORATOR, which corrects all acidity and soreness of the stomach.
For an over-loaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating heartily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.

Dr. Sanford's Invigorator
Came to be recommended as a cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a Diseased Liver. The testimonials of so many of our Physicians in its favor, induced us to try it, and now convince us that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and now we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and then that imperfectly. It will cure sufferers of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this, the greatest remedy in the world.—Ohio Fact.
We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.
There has never been tried in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of diseases incident to children as DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; for it is mild and safe for children that we use it, for it acts as a Cathartic so mildly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly that we think we are doing a service to all in advising them, who they need such, to try it.—Register.
We are constantly hearing of the great benefit [illegible] ... received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, when all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become a household word with us.—Jacksonville (Ala.) Republican.

JUST PUBLISHED.
THE UNFORTUNATE'S GUIDE, GIVING directions where to obtain Medical aid, and containing astounding facts and thrilling and interesting information never before in print, By Doctor WM. THOMSON. Price twelve cents. Upon the receipt of four postage stamps the book shall be forwarded free from observation to any address in the United States or Canadas. As it contains important private information for both sexes, the author received, through the Post Office during the last month from all parts of the country and city, over three thousand orders, for as many copies, evidently in the hands of females, but the evident design for the purpose of preventing their incognito. It is so "eminently" written that it abounds in startling and interesting truths, extracted from the author's diary and case books, the result of thirty year's practice in all climates, in the treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, which gave him better opportunities than those possessed by the Roman Catholic Confessor, to look behind the curtain.

DR. HUBBELL'S
MEDICAL INFIRMARY,
69 RANDOLPH STREET, 69
Opposite the Revere Hotel.
TO YOUNG MEN AND OTHERS.—NERVOUS Debility and Chronic Diseases, the first and direct consequence of excess and abuse of the sexual system, is a peculiar diseased condition of the seminal organs, which is produced by masturbation. The following disorders, some in one case, some in another, are again the direct consequence of this disease, viz: Seminal Emissions, General Debility and Nervousness, Dizziness, Headache, Gloomy Forebodings, pains and weakness in the back, impairment of mental vigor and memory, weak and watery eyes, eruptions on the face and body, restlessness or vicious dreams and unrefreshing sleep, unfitness for marriage relations, improper excitability of the organs, stricture, consumption, dyspepsia, &c.
To the truth of this, more or less in each case, every sufferer from solitary indulgence can attest. And further, any latent or family predisposition to disease, as scrofula, consumption, apoplexy, rheumatism, epilepsy, imbecility, insanity, &c., is almost sure to be developed into activity, and is actually the most frequent cause of those maladies in young persons, as proved by the statistics of all countries. And this is equally true of the sexes. Still it alone is from this disease and its consequences is perfectly amenable to treatment.
Dr. Hubbell has for many years past been consulted upon so many and increasing cases of this vice, that his attention has been especially drawn directed to the treatment and cure, and he is happy to add he, beyond his most sanguine expectations, has realized a treatment at once safe and certain, and free from painful operations or nauseous medicines.

Having been long established in the city, he can appeal to all for a certificate of success, which should have great weight in the choice of the inexperienced.
Persons living at a distance, by giving a plain statement of their cases, will be attended to punctually, and medicine forwarded by express to all parts of the United States.
